And I thought to myself, how grateful, how blessed I am to be covered by insurance, and my chil-dren to be covered by insurance. And then as I got in the car, I remembered why I was so tired: because I had stayed up last night putting things in my garage for a yard sale that our PTA is having to raise money for the clinic, the free clinic, to provide free health care to the children in our school who are uninsured. It made so much sense to me why this issue has been so impor-tant to me over the past several years, and certainly why it is im-portant to the millions of Americans who are hard-working, day in and day out, and yet still uninsured. So, Mr. Chairman, again, thank you. The small business health care crisis is, undoubtedly, the num-ber-one issue I hear about when I am traveling in Arkansas, and I know why because of my own personal experiences. I have been working very hard on this solution, to come up with something that makes sense, both fiscally responsible, but also something that is going to work and that is going to get at the heart of the problem and do it quickly enough that we can get enough of these uninsured into insurance programs where they can actually have good choice at lower cost. It is not a government...
