Excerpt: . The publication of this series of Temple Lectures in book form was undertaken for a purpose. My experience during the past few years has demonstrated the fact to me that Evolution is the one great Truth which stands at the very threshold of all intellectual advancement. The want of a knowledge of it stultifies all attempts to understand the Infinite truth. I have found that nine-tenths of the persons who think they understand it, do not. Also, that the books on the subject present grave and well-nigh insurmountable difficulties to the ordinary investigator. By the time the average person has waded through. 600 pages of geology and 900 pages of evolution and origin of species, and 350 more of embryology, all in fine print, he has forgotten nine-tenths of what he has read. I have put in months of hard work making drawings for...
