By Melissa Kelly

Adams Media. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 320 pages. Dimensions: 9.2in. x 8.0in. x 0.9in. The perfect guide for teachers of all grade levels. While many companies provide on-the-job training programs for new recruits, teachers are given a classroom full of students and a directive: Educate the next generation of Americans. With this daunting task before them, teachers today are confronted with overcrowded classrooms, budget cuts, and a faltering education system. The Everything New Teacher Book recognizes that during the first couple of years in the classroom, teachers need effective suggestions on how to have a positive and lasting impact on their students. From the rules and tools of a successful learning environment to advice on behavior management, The Everything New Teacher Book is the perfect guide for teachers during their first or second year - and veteran teachers making a grade change. Written by longtime teacher Melissa Kelly, The Everything New Teacher Book shows teachers how to: Set goals Discipline students Address prejudice, controversy, and school violence Create valid assessments Maximize lesson time Manage their time and their health This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
