Leadam on the Work of the Cobden Club Lord Farrek: Gentlemen, I am extremely indebted to Mr. Potter and to you for allowing me to come before you at the beginning of your meeting. An engagement has been made for me which I cannot well put off, and I must needs get away early. I am well acquainted with the report of the Committee, and the remarks that I have to make will, I trust, be apposite to it. The General Position Of Free Trade Abroad. As regards the general position of matters in relation to the subject in which we are most nearly interested I am glad to be able to say that it is more favourable than any of us a short time ago had a right to expect. On the whole the position is very favourable. There is an obvious movement in the Australian colonies, some of which have been great centres of Protection, betokening a reaction...
